SERMON ON THE PLAIN

BLESSINGS AND WOES

Luke 6: 20-26

The blessings are upon the poor, the hungry, and those who weep. God's favor rest on the marginalized. The woes target the rich, fill, and those who laugh now, serving as a warning to those who find comfort and security in worldly pursuits.

We are called to examine where our treasures truly lie.
Are we seeking satisfaction in worldly success, or are we seeking
Christ's eternal kingdom?

THE CALL TO LOVE AND MERCY

Luke 6: 27-36

Jesus instructs to love our enemies and show mercy just as God is merciful.

Who are the "enemies" you are called to love?
How can you extend mercy this week, even when it is underserved?

BUILD ON A FIRM FOUNDATION

Luke 6: 46-49

Are you building on the rock of Jesus' teachings, or are you building on the shifting sands of cultural trends and personal convenience?
